We are in a state of loss. Is there any source to salvation? _____

When a person researches about his own life, he will find there is gain and loss. If he goes further, he will find the same every where. To gain the main purpose of one's life is very hard unless Allah so wills.

How can a man be a gainer while he does not know what is going on in his own body or right behind his back and not know anything when he sleeps? Weak, so weak and feeble is the whole creation especially the best of it; the human being. Therefore we believe that creation cannot do anything without the will of Allah and Allah can do anything and everything without the creation.

Actually man is in loss except for those who have the qualities of gain and victory as Allah almighty firmly said "(I swear) by the time, man is in a state of loss indeed, except those who believed and did righteous deeds, and exhorted each other to follow truth, and exhorted each other to observe patience."

All thanks to Allah, here is the salvation mentioned with the exception, to save our self from punishment of this world and in the next world we need to have four kinds of qualities 1. Belief 2. Righteous deeds 3. Exhorting each other to follow the truth. 4. Exhorting each other to observe patience. It is easy if you think and have the will to save yourself from loss in this world and the hereafter.

So believe as the companions of our prophet have believed. Do righteous deeds as mentioned in the Quran and Sunnah. Tell people the truth of Islam and be patient while remaining steadfast in performing your obligations. Prevent yourself from being amongst those whose labour is lost in this world's life and they think that they are well versed in skill of the work of hands. Prevent yourself from committing sins, endure hardship with patience and be the gainer.

One of the righteous deeds is to institute a place where we can teach and learn the obligations of Islam; the source of salvation. It will be a Sadaqah Jariyah. It will be for our present and future generations. It is a major sin to ignore the establishment of the foremost need of Islam. Spending your wealth, health and time are required for this species of needs. Allah has sworn by the time. Time is your life, your capital which is melting and melting away, it is up to you whether you use it or destroy it. To discuss more please call 07882790719

Allah has made the adherence to the Hijab/pardah a manifestation for chastity and modesty: O Prophet! Tell your wives and your daughters and the women of the believers that they should draw down their shawls over them. Q33:59 _____ Therefore all the mothers/sisters are humbly requested to wear Hijaab (Dupattah/Niqab) upon dropping / collecting their child/ren so then we feel proud that we are acquiring Islamic knowledge, teaching it and our children practising and acting upon it. Also our generation will follow our good acts; therefore Allah almighty will accept our righteous deeds and will be pleased with us.

- One can do Tayammum when water is not available or when the use of water is injurious to health.
- You can do masah on the Waterproof Socks for 24 hours when you are at home and for 72 hours when you are a traveller.
- When you are in the state of no wud'U then you are holding the minor unseen impurity. When you are in the state of no Ghusl then you are holding the major unseen impurity.
- If a person is unable to have purity by wud'U, Ghusl or Tayammum to offer Salah irrespective of whether the means of purification are not available or it is because of some sickness and the salah time will expire soon then he/she should offer the salah without the purification. Once the person purifies him/herself later, he/she should repeat the salah. (Bahishti Zewar for males page:72)
- Entry in to mosque for a woman in the state of her period is forbidden.
